

CTFA's Orlin Corey Medallion Award

Children's Theatre Foundation's 2017 Orlin Corey Medallion Award Honorees

CTFA's Orlin Corey Medallion Award, honors the recipients for their significant achievements for the enrichment of children in the United States through nurturing artistic work in theatre and the arts.

2017 Honorees

- Brian Guehring, the Director of Education and Playwright-in Residence at The Rose Theater;

Founder of the Pride Players

- Each One Reach One (EORO) with Robin Sohnen (Exec. Director/Founder), a San Francisco non-profit which works with incarcerated youth using arts and education to transform the lives of high risk youth in San Mateo, Santa Clara and San Francisco counties

Medallion Event & Keynote Presentation:

Thursday, May 4, 2017

Strand Theatre, San Francisco

The 2017 Medallion Event was presented in association with TYA/USA One Theatre World (OTW17).

The CTFA/One Theatre World 2017 Keynote Address featured Sonia Manzano of Sesame Street fame.

The keynote presentation by Sonia Manzano is funded, in part, by the Alvin Cohen Memorial Fund of the Children's Theatre Foundation of America, designed to encourage and support exceptional programs at national theatre conferences. Mr. Cohen served the theatre field professionally and philanthropically. He was a trustee of the Children's theatre Foundation of America, for which he established the Alvin Cohen Fund. The Cohen family continues this fund in his memory.

All registered OTW17 conference attendees were invited to attend the Keynote Address and the presentation of the 2017 CTFA Corey Medallion Awards.

2017 Medallion PATRONS Gifts will be listed in the CTFA Website. Patron gifts received by April 3rd will also be listed in the Medallion Event Program.